

Asien – Vietnam – Tableau des Dignités de l'Empire d'Annam. Ordre civil. Without place or date, circa 1870; small in-4, [16] pp. manuscripts and 12 pl., in a folder. € 850,-

A collection of 24 magnificent drawings in colour, reproducing the silk squares that the Vietnamese mandarins wore on their ceremonial costumes, helping to identify them: dragons, storks, lion, butterfly, flowers, etc.

The 16 handwritten pp. detail the titles of the administration under the dynasty Nguyễn (1802-1945), from His Excellency with the dazzling fame (1st degree 1st class) to the veterinary assistance of the elephants (9th degree 2nd class), via the director of the stewardship of the emperor's palace mouth provisions and the victims for the sacrifices. Each dignity is accompanied by the Vietnamese name and a phonetic transcription.
